Mussolini Preparing To Invade Greece To Control Salonika Naval Base; Balkan Crisis Flares As Torpedo Sinks Greek Cruiser

BERLIN, (UP) — Well-informed German quarters predicted today that ever-increasing masses of German planes would be flung into the mighty air onslaught against the British Isles.

PLANES "FILL SKIES"

LONDON, (UP)—Germany's war planes "filled the skies" over Britain's war-pocked southeast coast today while Stuka dive-bombers attacked inland objectives and a raid in force was made upon a northeast coastal town.

Clashes Reported

NEW YORK, (UP) — Columbia Broadcasting System today intercepted British wireless reports asserting that clashes with Germans have occurred in Poland, Denmark and Czechoslovakia.

The broadcast was said to have described clashes in Denmark between German soldiers and Danish civilians, resulting in eight prison sentences. Seven persons were reported to have been sentenced to death in western Poland for mistreating defenseless Germans.

Clashes were said to have occurred in Czechoslovakia because of a Czech-Fascist raid on Czech national unity party headquarters.

Duce Eyes Salonika

LONDON, (UP) — Premier Benito Mussolini of Italy was reported to be planning an invasion of Greece through Albania to take control of Salonika, one of the finest naval bases in the near east.

According to information reaching a highly responsible Balkan diplomat from his government, there are "no signs that Greece will resist such an Italian advance."

By UNITED PRESS

The Greek crisis flared dangerously today as German bombers blasted again at Britain's battle-scarred coast and nearby inland areas.

An unidentified submarine torpedoed the Greek cruiser, Helle, today as it lay in the ancient harbor of Tinos on the Aegean Sea.

Young Business Man Succumbs

Jack Edward Rupley Is Claimed Thursday By Heart Affliction

Jack Edward Rupley, 21, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles J. Rupley, of Placerville, and a partner in the local business of Rupley Brothers, died Thursday morning soon after nine o'clock at a hospital in Sacramento.

The young man had been a patient at the hospital since Wednesday of last week after he had been seized with a sudden heart attack while at work in Placerville.

The arrangements for the funeral services will be concluded in Placerville with the assistance of Memory Chapel.

The announcement that the young man had passed away was received by his many friends and the many friends of the family with expressions of regret at his untimely death and of sympathy for the bereaved family.

The deceased was born December 1, 1918, at Georgetown, and moved to Placerville with his parents about three years later. He attended school in Placerville and was graduated at El Dorado County high school in 1936, being president of the student body for his senior year.

He later attended a Sacramento school in business training and was president of the student body at that institution. In earlier life a Boy Scout, he had been a member and a Past Master Councilor of El (Continued on Page Four)

SENATE POLL ON DRAFT

Sentiment In Favor Of Postponing Conscription Until January 1, 1941

WASHINGTON, (UP)—An unofficial poll indicated today that the senate would approve an amendment postponing military conscription until Jan. 1, 1941.

The amendment is to the Burke-Wadsworth conscription bill, which the senate now is debating, and would eliminate conscription altogether if voluntary enlistments, encouraged by a shorter enlistment period and more pay for enlisted men, supplies the army with the men it needs for defense by then.

The poll was disclosed as the house prepared to vote on the senate-approved bill that would authorize President Roosevelt to mobilize 360,000 National Guards and reservists for training. Its passage was believed assured, but only after a hard fight over restrictive amendments.

An administration spokesman said that the "draft delay" amendment, sponsored by Sen. Francis T. Maloney, D., Conn., would be approved if voted on immediately.

Assistant democratic leader Sherman Minton, D., Ind., who opposes delaying conscription, predicted the vote would be "very close."

The administration leader, who refused to allow his name to be used, said that the balance of power is with four senators, all of whom oppose conscription in principle.

They are Sens. George W. Norris, Ind., Neb.; Henrik Shipstead, F.-L., Minn.; Robert M. LaFollette, F.-L., Wis.; and Ernest Lundeen, F.-L., Minn. Proponents of the draft were said to be concentrating on persuading this group against the Maloney amendment.

DIAMOND SPRINGS PAIR WED ON THURSDAY IN PLACERVILLE

In a service performed Thursday morning at the residence of the Rev. and Mrs. Rex A. Barron, Miss Marjorie Melchior, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Melchior, and Francis Darrington, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Darrington, were united in marriage. The Rev. Barron performed the ceremony in the presence of a party of about thirty relatives of the principals.

The ceremony was followed by a wedding breakfast at Hotel Raffles following which the couple left for San Francisco on their wedding trip.

Upon their return they will make their home at Diamond Springs where the bridegroom is employed at Gust Brothers garage. We join the many other friends of the happy couple in congratulations and all good wishes.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Carrington and daughters, of Sacramento, were here for a week's visit with Earl Jeffery and his mother.

Forest Supervisor Edwin F. Smith was on the Georgetown district of the forest Thursday.

113-FOOT BRIDGE SUPPORTS NEW HIGHWAY CROSSING SUMMIT

Maximum Grade On Improved Section Only 5.6 Per Cent; Relocation Will Be Extended Eventually To Floor Of Lake Valley

(Reprinted from the August issue of California Highways, official publication of the State Department of Public Works)

The more tortuous curves and steep grades of the Echo Summit route through the Sierra Nevada region of El Dorado County will be only memories for the motorists using this route with the completion of surfacing work on a section of the Meyers grade relocation of the Placerville-Lake Tahoe highway and the opening of the new road to traffic which occurred on July 17.

The new routing greatly improves the safety of the road by eliminating switchbacks with sharp curves and steep grades of 11 per cent and descends on a grade not exceeding 5.6 per cent to the present road below the switchbacks.

The grading of this portion of U. S. 50, extending from a point two miles east of Phillips to three miles west of Meyers, was completed in June, 1939, by Louis Biasotti and Son and John Rocca, under the supervision of Public Roads Administration at an approximate cost of $300,000. The new section of road was constructed on entirely new alignment, as a National Forest Highway project financed from Forest Highway funds. The location was established by surveys of the State Division of Highways with final plans completed by the Public Works Administration.

In the August, 1938, issue of "California Highways and Public Works" an article was published describing the construction operations then under way on this project. This article also brought out the fact that the irregular rock bluffs near the summit necessitated heavy blasting and the use of solid benches or retaining walls for the support of the roadway in various locations. At one point it was necessary to construct a reinforced concrete bridge 113 feet long because of lack of any support for an embankment.

Although selected material was placed on a portion of the road under the grading contract, no provision was made for surfacing and the project was therefore barricaded until surfacing, which was to be built by the state, could be constructed.

FAIR PROGRAM FEATURES

Major Special Events On Sunday; Dancing, Fireworks Saturday

A varied program of special events with two fireworks displays, the Wheelbarrow Derby and the Pony Express race as special features, has been tentatively programmed by the management of the fourth annual County Fair, opening Friday of the coming week, August 23.

The opening day will usher in the special events program with the American Legion amateur contest and an old-time dance on Friday evening at eight o'clock.

Saturday, August 24, will be the day of the horse show, starting at noon and continuing through the afternoon. In the evening there will be a free fireworks display, a courtesy of the Shell Oil Company.

The program for Sunday is designed to climax the three-day exposition attractions and will start off with the second annual Studebaker Wheelbarrow Derby at one o'clock, followed by the first annual Pony Express Race, then the tug of war, then the double-jack drilling contest followed by the log bucking contest, and then a drum corps exhibition.

Another fireworks display, arranged by the fair board, will close the fair late Sunday night.

District Attorneys of Mother Lode counties met in Placerville Wednesday for a conference with Jess Hession, deputy attorney general, on general problems of law enforcement.

District Attorney Henry S. Lyon was at Santa Barbara on Thursday officiating at the community Fiesta there in his capacity as Grand President of the Native Sons.

Hundreds of items will be placed on sale at money-saving prices, giving the people of this community an opportunity to "kill two birds with one stone," see the county fair and do their fall buying all during one big grand week.

ALARMED SEARCHERS FIND "LOST HIKERS" COSILY ASLEEP

Desolation Valley holds no fears for six members of the Sacramento Young Men's Christian Association camp but their night out badly frightened the camp directors over the weekend.

The boys started on a hike from the summer playground located near Camp Sacramento. When they did not return by midnight searching parties were formed.

At 1 a. m. it occurred to the camp instructors to look in the outpost cabin in Desolation Valley. There they found the boys wrapped in blankets and sound asleep. The boys explained they hiked farther than expected and night fell by the time they reached the outpost.

Fires were lighted to signal the main camp that all was well. The party was in charge of Richard Everts, 16, son of B. R. Everts, boys' director of the camp.

Under the rules of the fair, no entries will be received after 6 p. m. on Thursday, August 22. Fair officials pointed out that anyone who expects or even hopes to exhibit at the fair should fill out an entry blank.

Their exhibit need not be actually placed in the fair until early Friday morning, but under the rules of the fair all exhibits must be in place when the fair opens at ten o'clock Friday morning, August 23, and no exhibits placed after that hour can be considered as competitive.

Manager Thomas T. Chard announced Wednesday evening that the setting up of the four huge exhibit tents in which the displays will be housed will start early next week.

It is hoped that by Tuesday afternoon actual installation of displays may be started.

"The four tents will be inter-connecting so that there will be a common main entrance and spectators may pass readily from one tent to another in viewing the exhibits," Manager Chard said.

"The first tent will be for civic exhibits and the flower show, which is again being arranged by the ladies of the Placerville Shakespeare Club. The second tent will house the Grange and Farm Center displays; (Continued on Page Four)

GOSHEN (AP)—I hate to get sulky about the sulks, but I would like to ask an important question before I shake the pari-mutuel tickets and corn silks out of my hair and head down the pike toward New York.

Why do the trotting and pacing folk call their association of tracks the Grand Circuit?

Could it be because Grand Circuit literally means "big run-around?" Certainly that's what a lot of us who came here for the Hambletonian yesterday feel that we got. Not in the Hambletonian, mind you, which was a beautifully run race, but in the seventh event on the program, the Arrowpoint stake for three-year-old trotters and pacers, purse $1,000.

Six swingers and swayers were entered in the Arrowpoint but you could only bet on five of them. The track officials, with a solicitude toward the pari-mutuel machines that was touching, barred a horse named Fearless Peter from the betting.

The reason given for this was that Fearless Peter was far and away the best horse in the field, and was certain to win. The officials did not want any of the customers to enjoy the rare pleasure of wagering on what appeared to be a sure thing. Had betting on Fearless Peter been allowed, the crowd, which knew he was the class horse just as did the management, undoubtedly would have bet so much on him, and so little on his rivals, that a minus pool would have been the result. And a minus pool is the only way a track can lose money on a race.

Fearless Peter won both heats very easily and was regarded as the winner everywhere but at the mutuels. There the clerks paid off win tickets on the horse that finished second, place tickets on the horse that was third, and show money on the horse that came in fourth.

Now what kind of business is that? Race tracks survive because the customers gamble, so why shouldn't the tracks themselves be willing to take a flyer once in a while? I wouldn't mind how many times a track barred horses which couldn't lose, if it would only be fair about it and prohibit wagering on horses that didn't have a chance to win. Because for every sure winner which starts there are half a dozen fur-coated hat-racks which have no possible chance of getting home first.

While I'm on the subject of pari-mutuels, let me tell you that the ones at Goshen established a new world record—not in handle, but in mis-handle. There weren't one-tenth enough of them to handle the big crowd of 40,000, in the first place, and as a result the stampede outside the windows combined the most uncomfortable features of the Oklahoma land rush, the dash to the Yukon and a bargain basement on Christmas Eve.

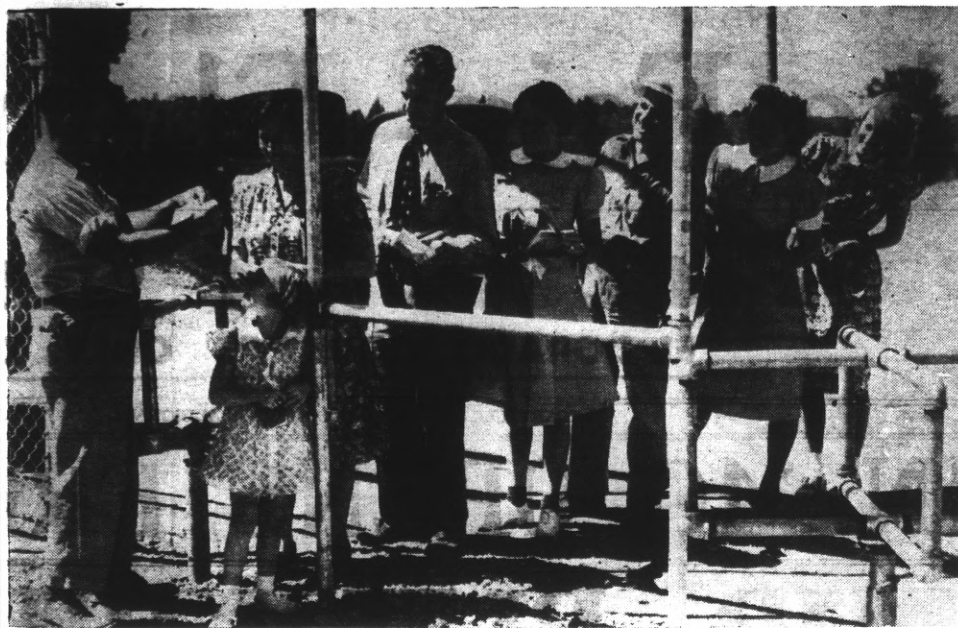

And then there was an elfin touch which really brought about confusion. Some of the windows which were marked as win windows sold only place tickets, and vice versa. When a purchaser finally did reach a window he was too exhausted to argue about the mixed signs and took anything offered him, even if it was ham on rye.

About one thing, however, there can be no complaint. The corn on the cob sold by the good churchwomen under their striped tents pitched hard by the gambling windows was perfect.

Still, Goshen is a long way to drive from New York for corn on the cob.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Jinkerson, of Bay City, Mich., left for their home Wednesday after spending a week here with the former's cousin, Tom Jinkerson.

Mr. and Mrs. Elan Edward Killian, of Placerville, are the parents of a son, Jerry Dean Killian, born on August 11th.

JUDGE GEORGE C. BRYSON, OF RENO, STRICKEN AT SAN FRANCISCO

RENO—Funeral services for Municipal Judge George C. Bryson, 88, of Reno, who died in San Francisco Monday night, were held in Oakland Wednesday, followed by cremation.

The ashes will be taken to Carson City, Nevada, and will be buried beside his wife, who died here in 1930.

Judge Bryson, regarded here as one of the oldest police judges in the country, was born on November 5, 1881, in New Orleans, La., and had served as municipal judge for twenty-five years. He had been receiving treatment in a San Francisco hospital for the last three weeks.

Judge Bryson came to Nevada in the '80's after spending his life as a boy and young man in California. The Bryson family first settled in El Dorado County in the gold rush days, where Judge Bryson's father engaged in gold mining operations, and later operated a road house and stage station near Placerville.

Carson City was the judge's first residence in Nevada. He worked at various jobs in the state's capital and later went into business as an independent merchant. In 1883 he was married to Miss Lucy McManus. The two children born to the couple, Mrs. J. C. Galer of San Francisco and George C. Bryson, survive. He also is survived by two sisters, Alice Bogart and Barbara Wilson. He was a brother of Miss Jennie Bryson, a former teacher in El Dorado county schools.

Bryson at one time was an outstanding athlete in Carson City, competing in foot races, boxing matches and played on the famous Silver Stars baseball nine.

He moved to Reno in 1900 and operated a cigar store and later was a partner in a sporting goods business here. He was appointed police judge in 1914, and had been elected to the office since.

He was a past master of Carson City lodge of Masons, the Lewis chapter, Royal Arch Masons; DeWitt Clinton Commandery, Knights Templar and was a life member of Kerk Temple of the Shrine.

He also was affiliated with the Carson City Lodge, Knights of Pythias, a past high chief of the Royal Arch Chapter and a past grand priest of the grand chapter. He held the office of chancellor of the Knights of Pythias at one time. He also was active in the local Elks Lodge.

OLD-TIME DANCING WITH PRIZE AWARDS AT FAIR FRIDAY

An "old time costume dance" with prizes for men's and ladies' costumes and for the best waltzes, will be held at the County Fair on Friday night, August 23, immediately following the American Legion amateur hour.

Fair officials expressed the hope that a large number of county residents will attend the dance in old-time costumes and stated that exhibition dances by any groups of the county will be welcomed as features of special interest in connection with the dance program.

Costume prizes are $5 first award and $2.50 second award for ladies and for gentlemen, in addition to cash awards in the prize waltz.

LOVE SHY

By Nelly Graf

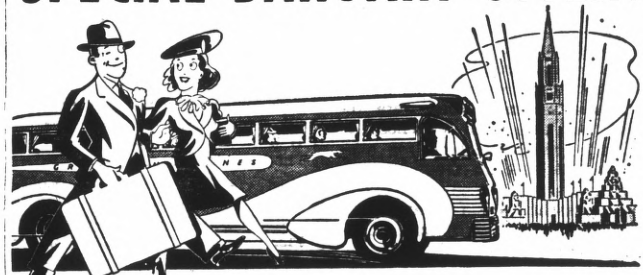

MARIANNE was the wrong kind of girl for the goal she chose. Money didn't really mean everything to her. But after she had found it meant so much to the man she loved, she determined that she would have it. You had to have it, she concluded, if you were to have love—for keeps. Provided, of course, you still wanted love. Marianne doubted that she did. She was to have her doubts dispelled, to find herself caught in the meshes of her own golden trap—to wish desperately that she never had devised it.

scars to the minimum on this recreational route influenced design and affected construction methods. Cabins and lodges along the brink of the crest above the highway location increased difficulties. Careful attention is being given to landscaping.

As construction operations proceeded, the excavation lines in the high cutting of the fractured rock formation east of the summit have in general held unusually close to neat cross-section, avoiding excessive over-break and resultant waste scars.

Careful engineering and construction work are evidenced. Cement rubble masonry walls maintain support for much of the roadway in critical stretches, with design of these features well in keeping with the character of the country traversed.

The new construction is a spectacular section of the Tahoe Highway. Coming from the west, the motorist passes from an avenue of virgin timber to a vista overlooking the panorama of the Lake Tahoe basin. The transition is made over a sweeping summit curve, widened and safeguarded.

The descent that follows is on a roadway where width, curvature, grade and sense of security are in marked contrast to the former road. The new road will facilitate maintenance, especially in providing reasonable safe conditions when snow removal is required to keep the route open. Similar road standards will apply when the entire grade can be reconstructed to Meyers.

The Public Road Administration officials in charge of the project are: Dr. L. I. Hewes, chief of Western Region; C. H. Sweetser, District Engineer; Levant Brown, Senior Highway Engineer, in charge of Forest and Park roads construction; E. C. Brown, Senior Highway Engineer, as Supervising Engineer, and M. M. Flint, Resident Engineer.

GLEN ALPINE HIKERS ARE STRANDED OVERNIGHT ON TALLAC SLOPES

Forest Rangers rescued two women who were stranded overnight Friday on the slopes of Mount Tallac, near Glen Alpine.

The women, Mary Fisher and Mary King, are employed at the home of Dr. and Mrs. D. K. Pischel of Pallen Leaf Lake, and had hiked up the mountain in the afternoon, planning to return at dark. On their way down, alarmed at the darkness, the two women left the trail then sat down and waited.

Searching parties were in calling distance of them several times, as they were only about half a mile from Glen Alpine resort, but they remained and were found by the rangers at dawn.

Child Drowned Near Camino

Girl, 3, Believed To Have Injured Head In Plunge Into Ditch

Janice May Garrett, 3, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carter E. Garrett, met death Wednesday afternoon while playing near the home of her grandparents near "the big ditch" along the highway about a mile east of Camino.

The child's body was found in the ditch after she had been missing for some time and a doctor who called reported there was evidence of some cranial injury, either a fracture or a concussion, which was perhaps sustained when the child fell from the bank into the ditch, a distance of eight to twelve feet.

Janice was the youngest of a family of four children who with their mother, Mrs. Virginia Myrtle Garrett, were visiting with the latter's parents. The husband and father is a radio operator in the Navy, at sea on the U. S. S. Concord.

The little girl was playing about the yard near the residence of her grandparents with other children when she wandered away from the group and, apparently, fell into the ditch. After she had been missed, a search was instituted and her body was found by Robert Swartz, 15.

An attempt was made to revive her and a doctor was called, but the child was dead.

In addition to her mother and father, the babe is survived by two brothers, David, 8, and Ronald, 6, and a sister, 4.

The arrangements for the funeral services are in the care of Memory Chapel.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Martinez, of Oakland, were here to spend the weekend with Earl Jeffery and his mother.

Orval Chandler, of Ontario, is visiting at the Tom Jinkerson home.

BARZEE ASKS CLEMENCY TO JOIN BRITAIN IN WAR

A San Quentin Prison convict who served in the last World War with a famous Canadian regiment has appealed to Governor Culbert L. Olson to release him so he can enlist again in the Canadian Army.

In a communication to the governor, the prisoner, John H. Barzee, 42, who was convicted in El Dorado County in 1939 on a rape charge, said if he is freed from prison he will go to England "for I am needed more there than I am in San Quentin Prison."

Barzee, a machine gunner in the last war, informed the governor he has two children in England, one serving in the English Army.

He added:

"I feel that my duty is there. I am asking for this commutation of sentence to time served so I can enlist in the Canadian Army."

"With my past experience in the last war, I feel I could be of valuable help to my buddies and regiment in this present conflict."

LEAP YEAR DANCE AT MOTOR CITY ON SATURDAY

Just to remind you in case you've forgotten, that this is the year when bachelors should beware, the management announces a "Leap Year Dance" will be given Saturday night, August 17, at Motor City.

Of course, explained Mrs. Barker, operator of the dance resort, that doesn't excuse the gentlemen from buying a ticket, unless the fair lady wishes to relieve her escort of the financial obligations. We are, however, giving each gentleman a novelty gift. As additional entertainment, prizes will be given for old-fashioned, that this is the year when There will also be a door prize.

C. C. Herbert, forest road superintendent, was at the Desolation Valley trail camp on Thursday.

Bridge Supports Summit Road

This machine picks up the aggregate from a single windrow along one side of the road, adds the bituminous binder, mixes the two materials and discharges the mixed surfacing in a single windrow behind the machine. The material is then spread and rolled in the usual manner. By using such a machine the contractor was able to maintain closer control over the oil-aggregate ratio than is possible with the conventional road-mixing methods.

According to Mr. Kaiser he selected and photographed all the display pictures for the Kern county exhibit at the 1915 exposition in San Francisco.
